Canton, Texas*

Canton High School
Canton, Texas

Dedication

For her invaluable help, her unfailing interest, her infinite patience, and her cheering encouragement, we of the Journalism Class dedicate this 1956 Eagle to our beloved sponsor, Mrs. Marilyn Boroughs.

Administration

BOARD OF EDUCATION

From left to right: Mr. Dawson, Mr. Groves, Mr. Milford, Mr. Allen, Mr. Scott, Mr. Reynolds, and Mr. Stanford. Mr. Heard is not shown.

Mr. Nelson
School counselor

Mrs. Steed
Secretary to superintendent

Mr. Leach
Tax collector

Superintendent's Message

It is with pleasure and honor that I salute you and express my good wishes for your future success and happiness.

We hope that the time you have spent in school here will be the beginning of an advancing era toward higher education and will serve as a record of these years of accomplishments and achievements at Canton High School.

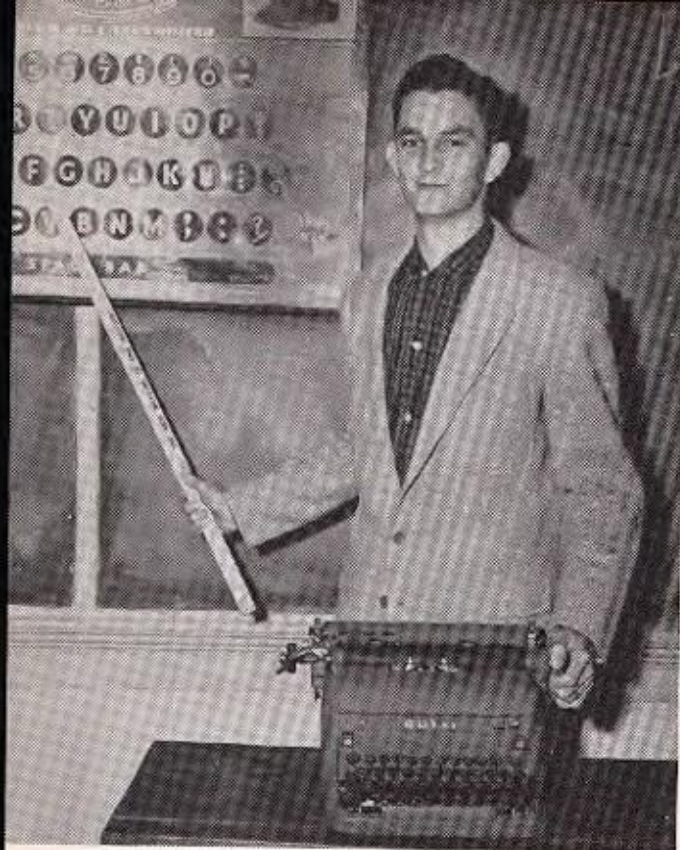

No other generation of youth in history has been confronted with social, economic, and political problems more far-reaching than that of today. It is my hope that your experience in Canton High School will help you meet these problems and enable you to think and act for yourself and enjoy the benefits of your creation so that you may face the world boldly and accept these obligations to the service of humanity and the glory of God.

Sincerely your friend,

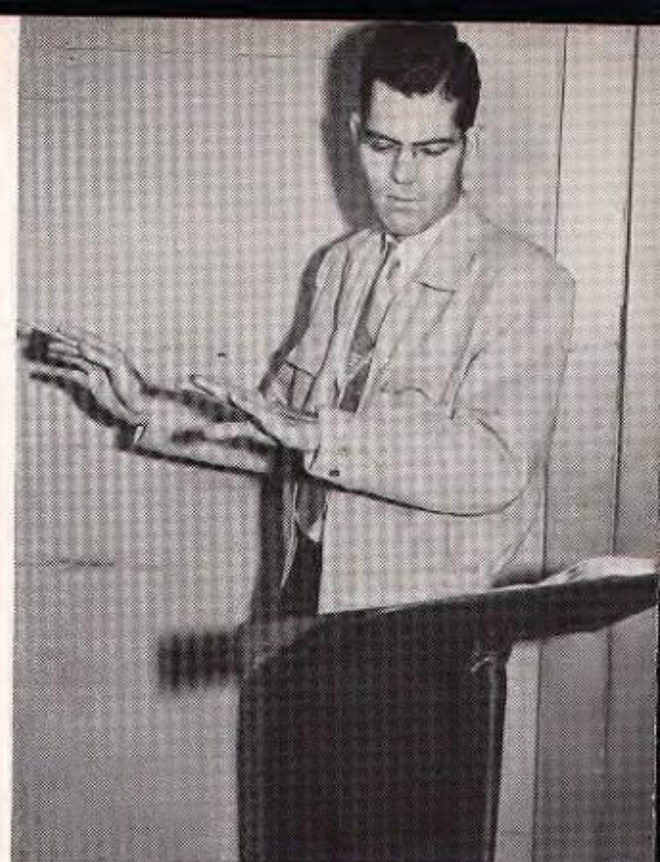

Bill N. Allen

Now what's your name?

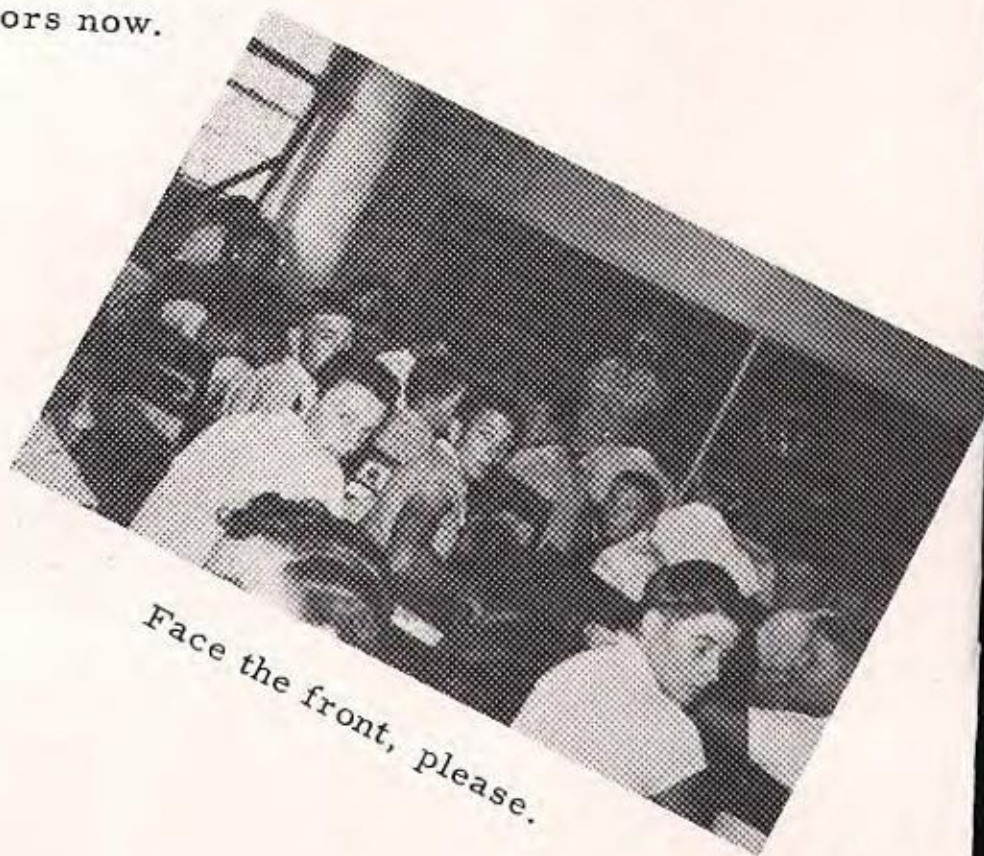

Where is that record?

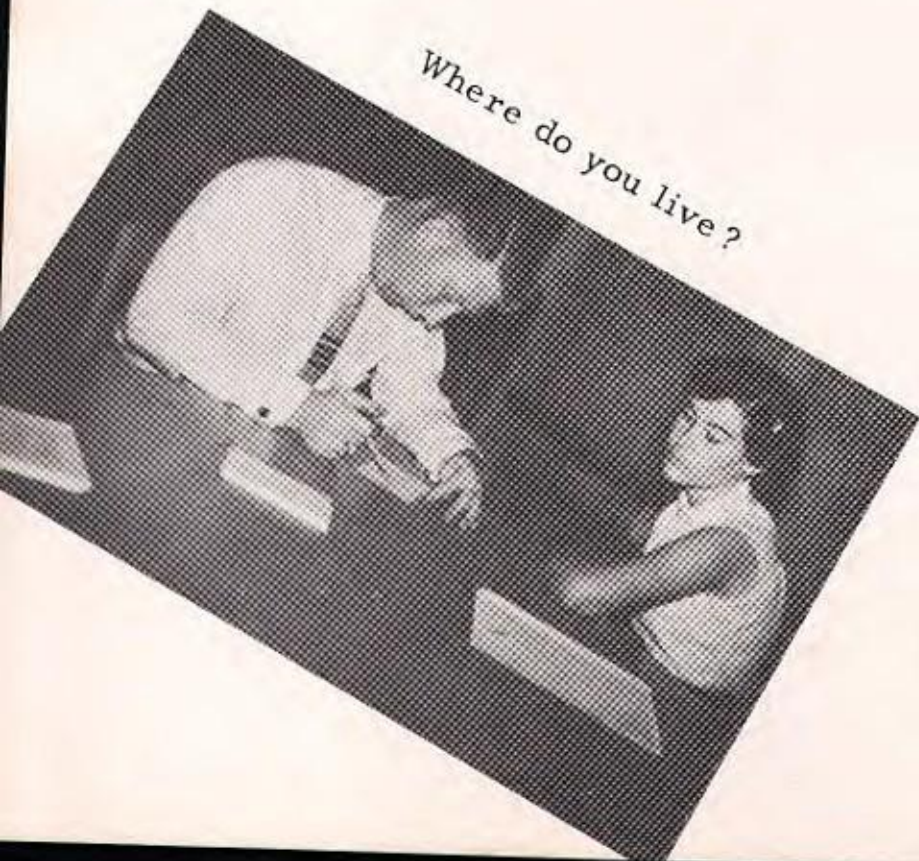

We're Seniors now.

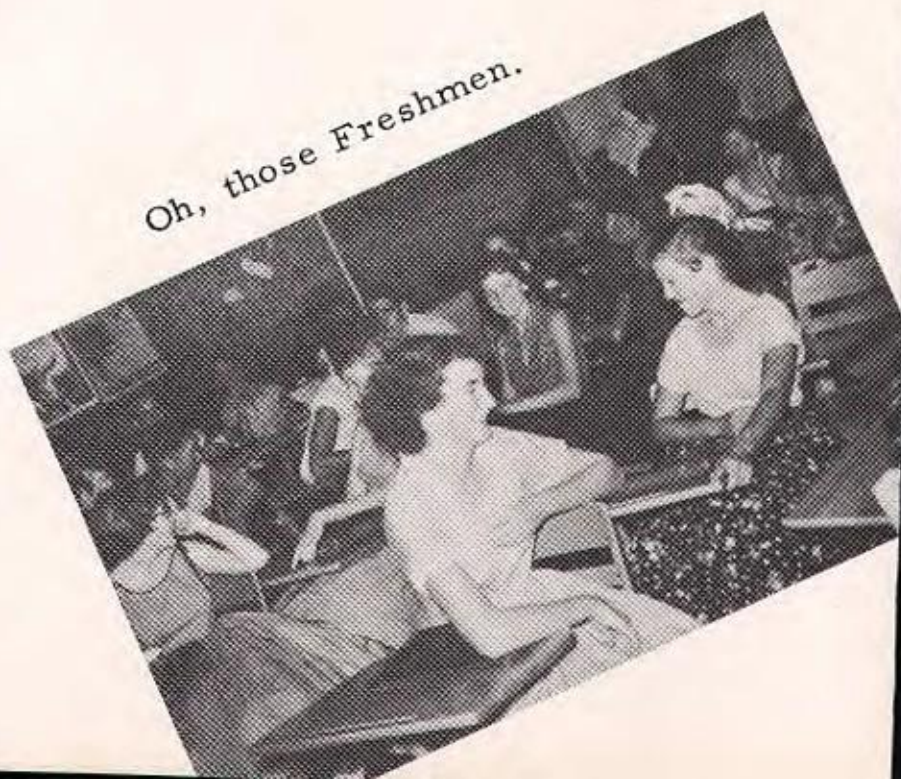

How were things for you?

Face the front, please.

Where do you live?

Oh, those Freshmen.

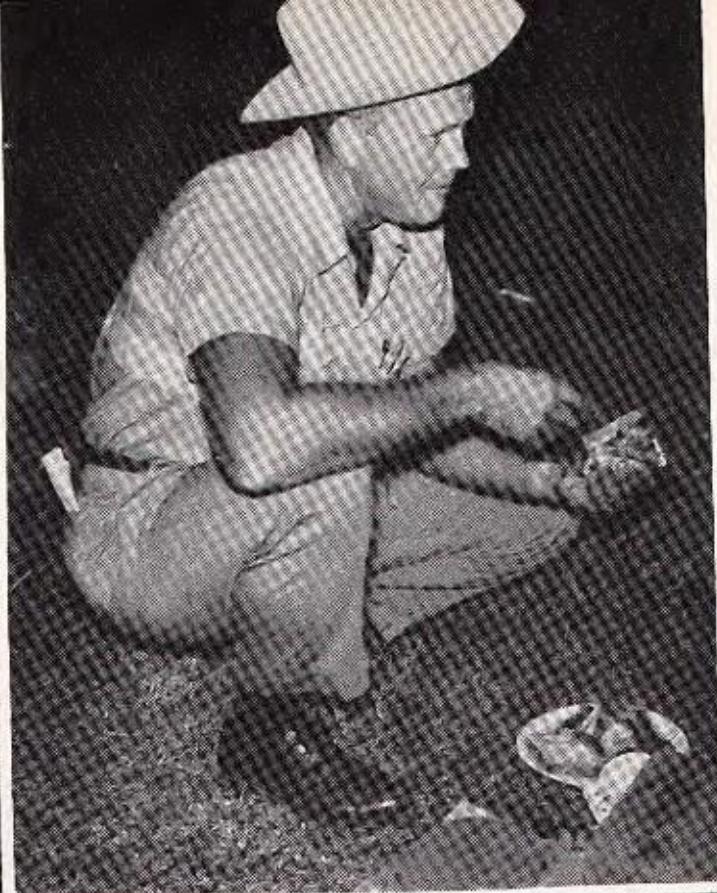

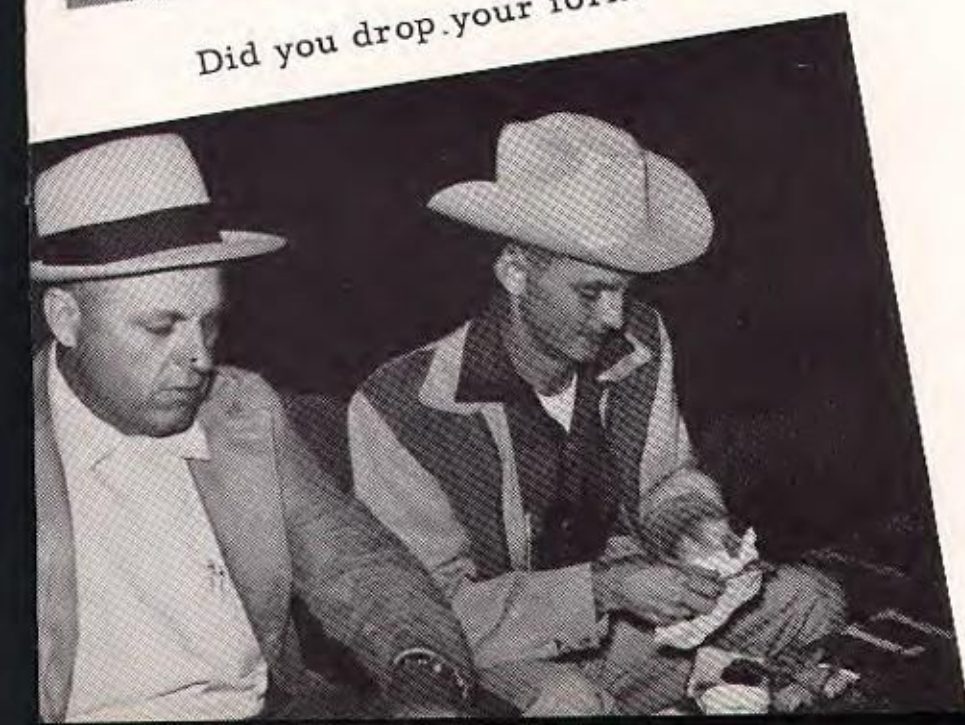

Talk about teenagers!

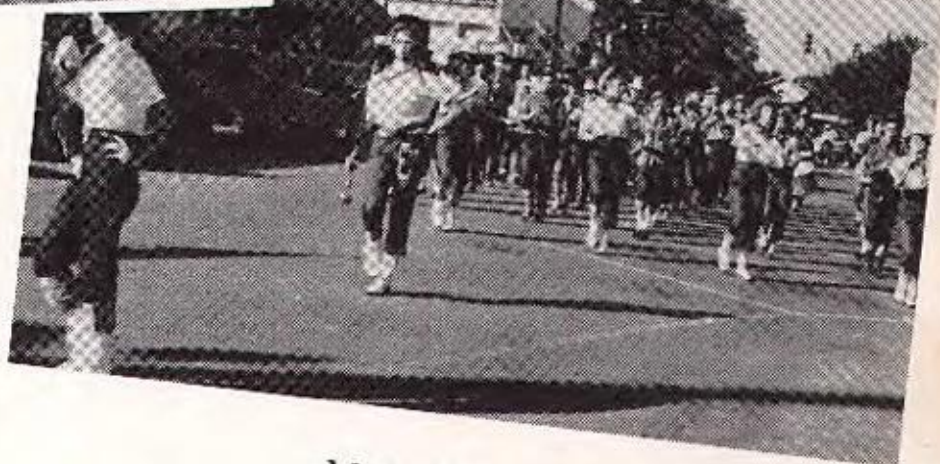

S-t-r-e-t-c-h!

Did you drop your fork?

Is it poison?

Presenting the Canton Rangeretts!

Man, that barbecue!

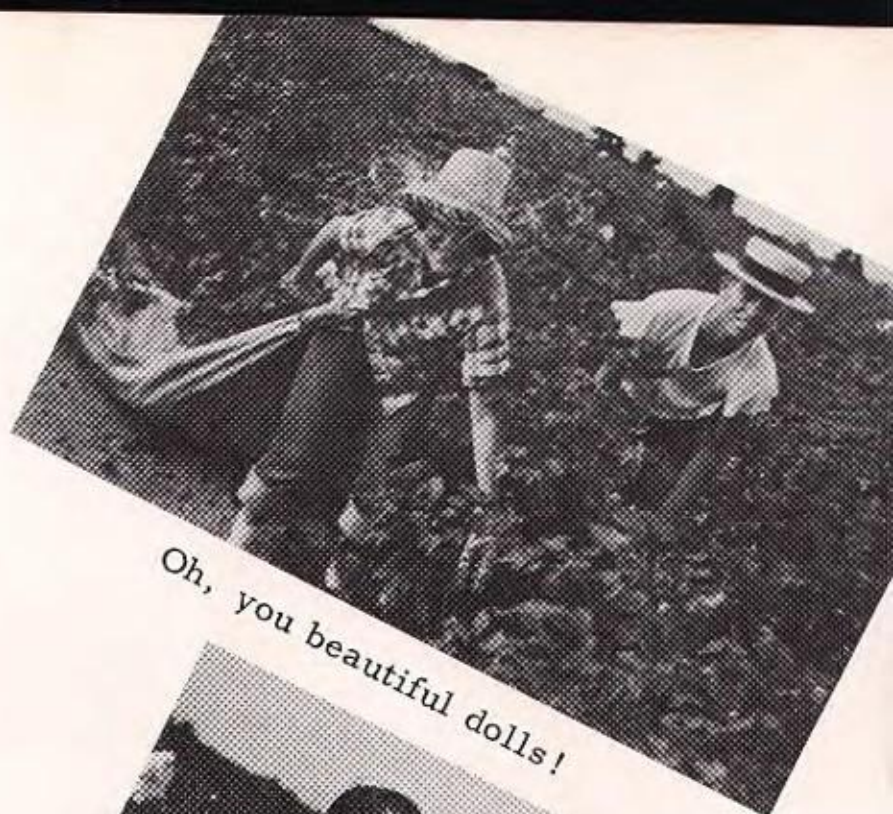

Suzie, are you sure it's coke?

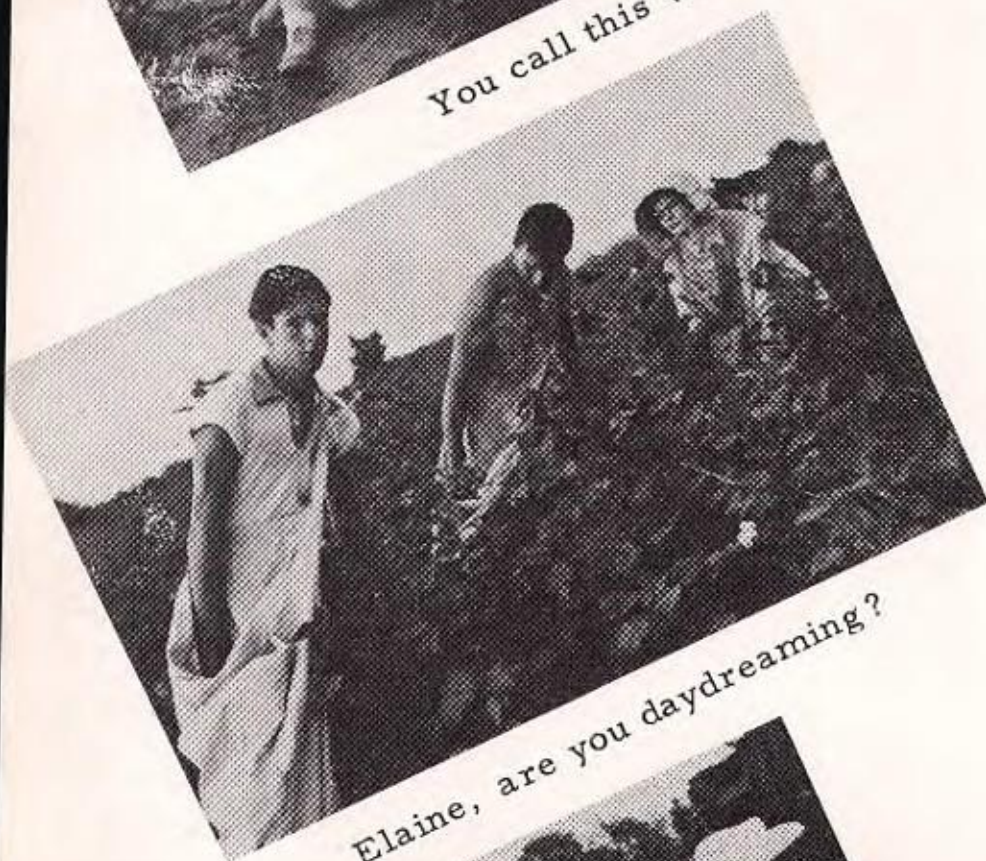

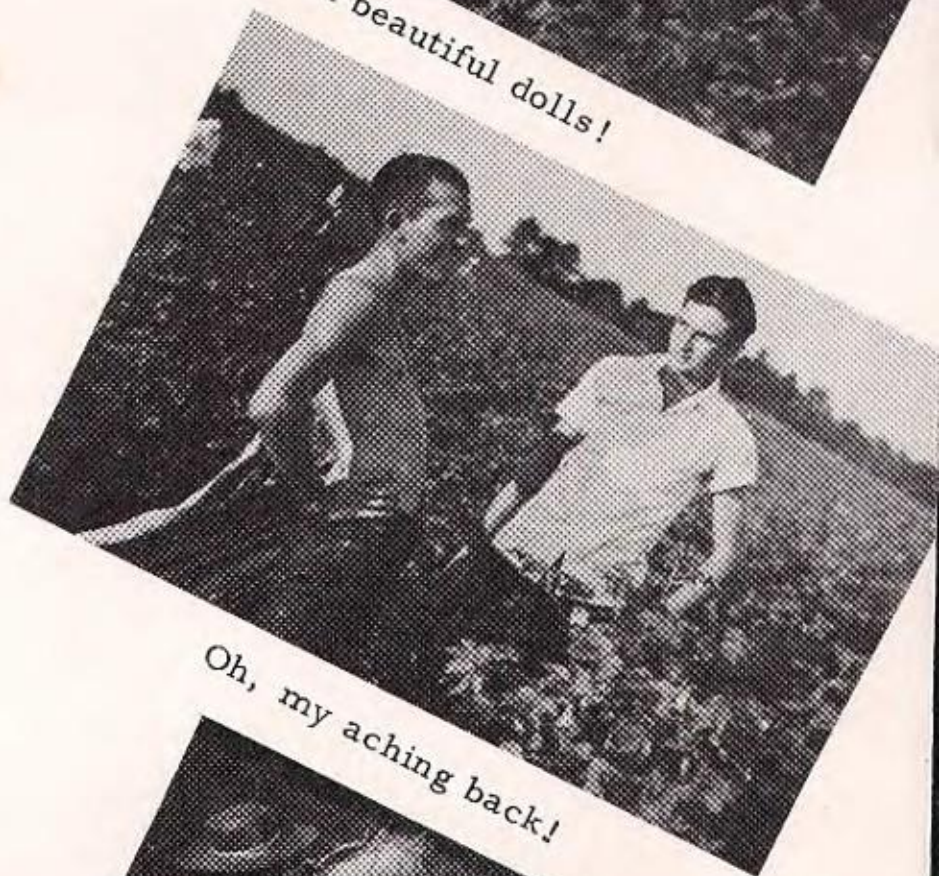

You call this work?

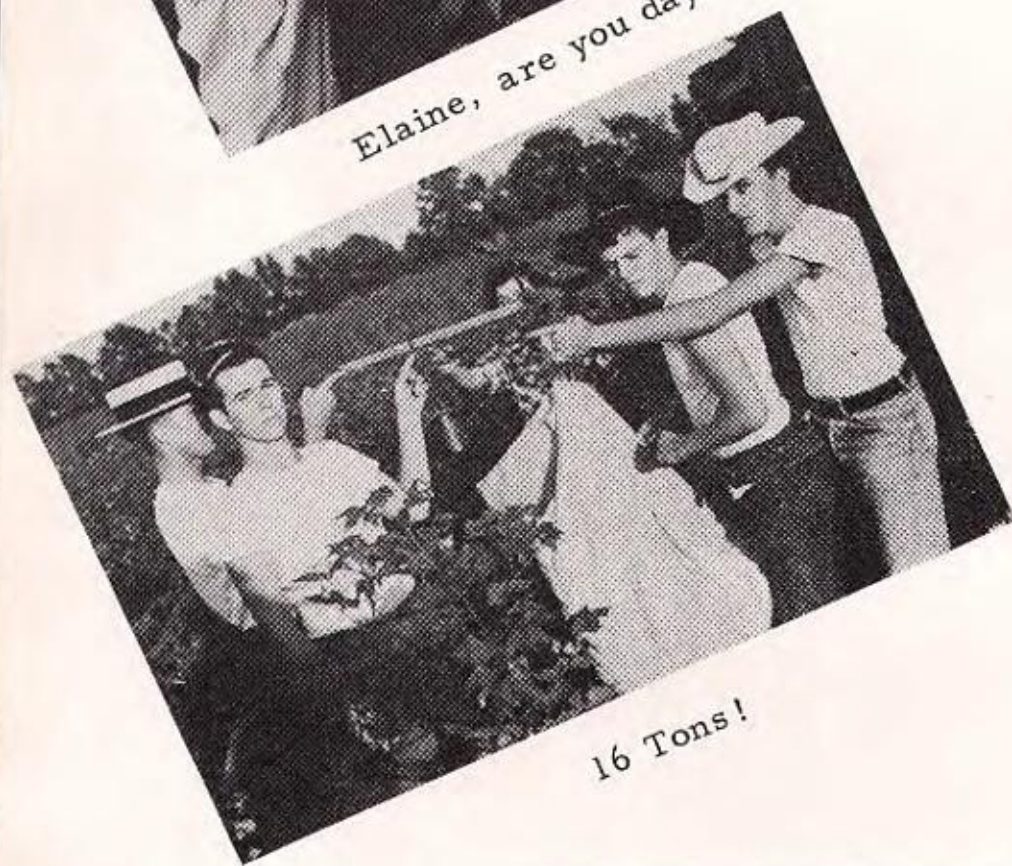

Oh, you beautiful dolls!

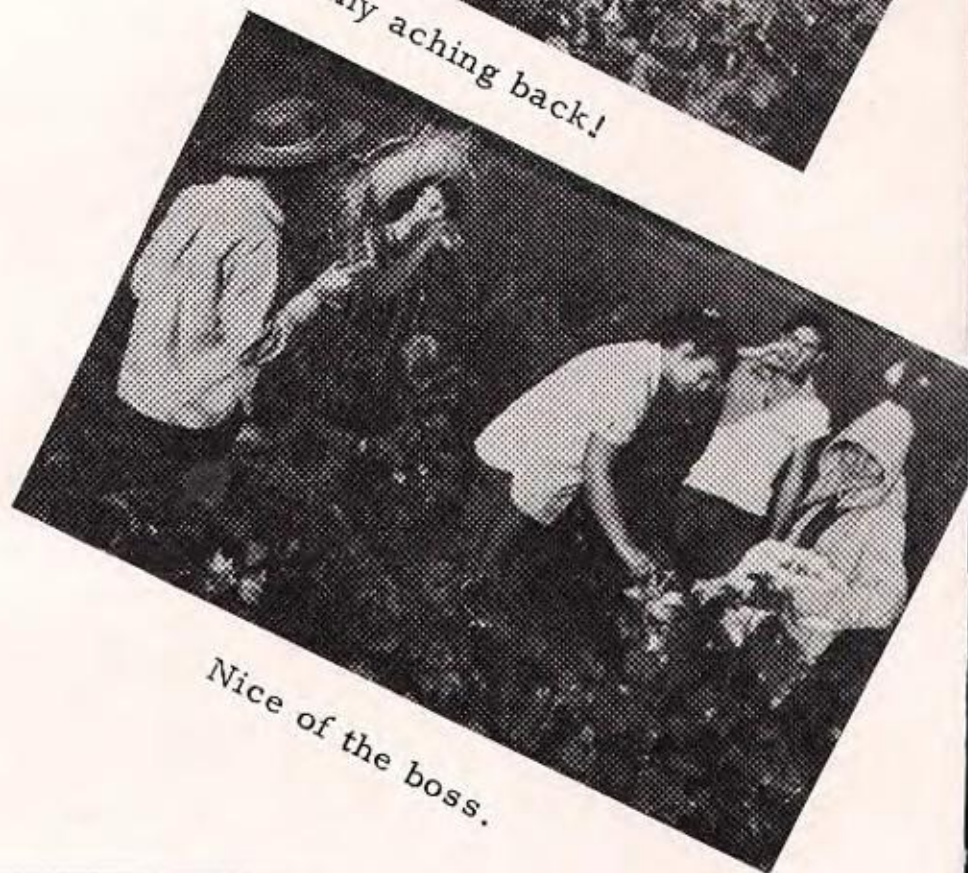

Elaine, are you daydreaming?

Oh, my aching back!

16 Tons!

Nice of the boss.

Okay, now back to work.

Time out to pose.

What ya eatin', Virg?

Too much ribbon on one package.

Cut it out, boys.

Think ya pretty, don't ya?

Slow down, Jean.

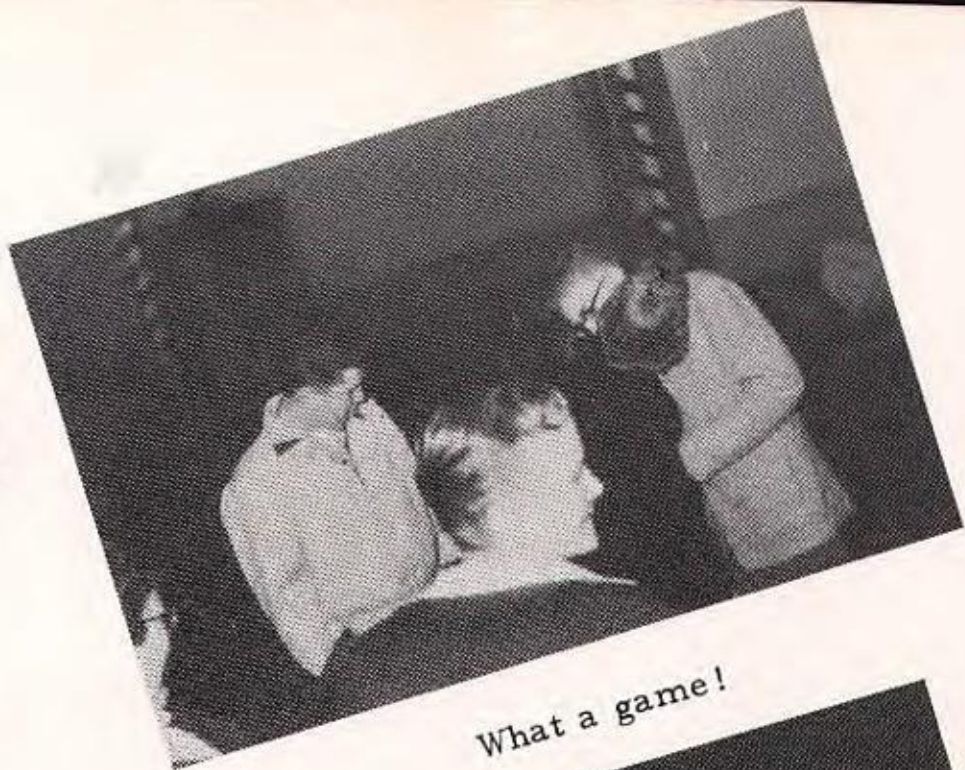

What? No girls?

Are you counting them,
Walter?

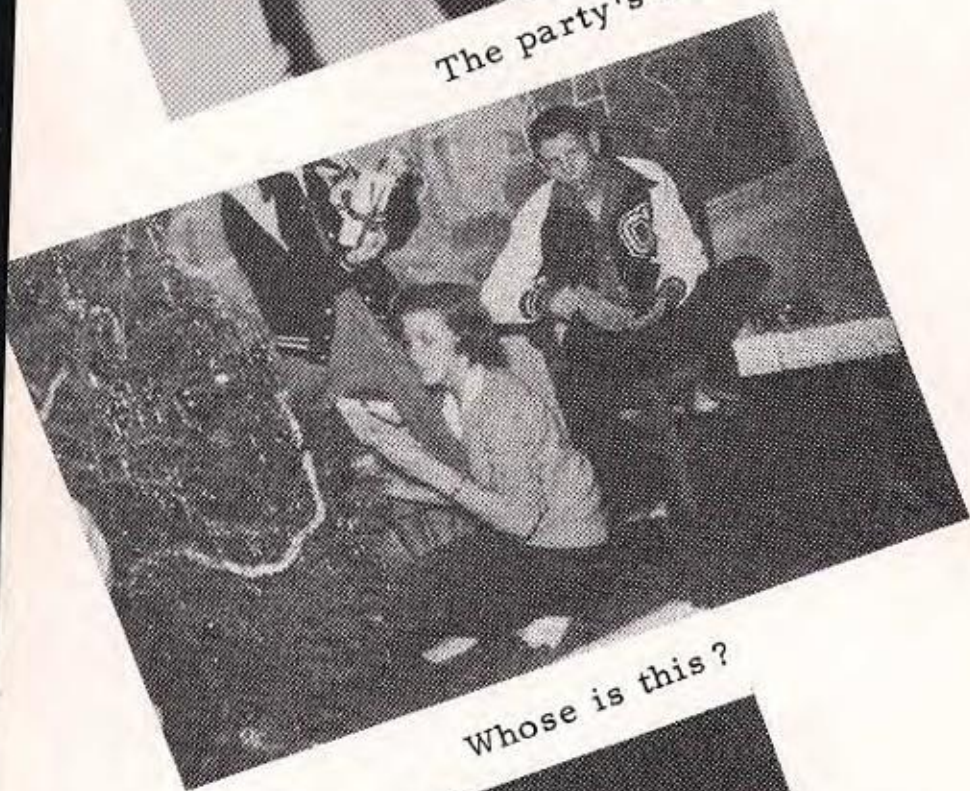

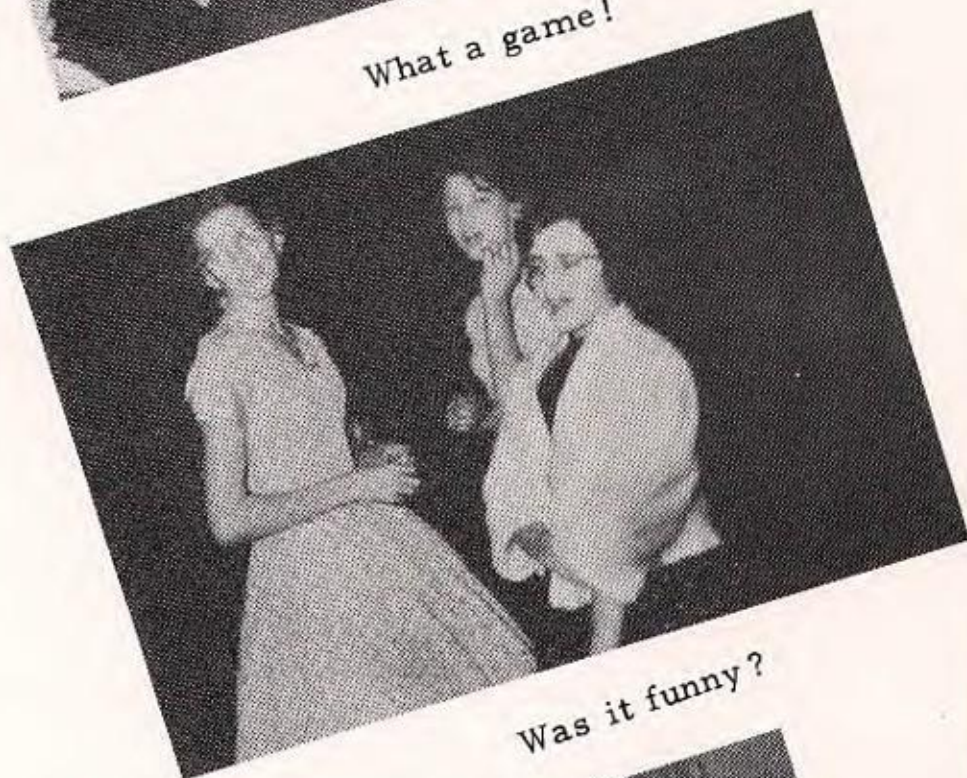

The party's over.

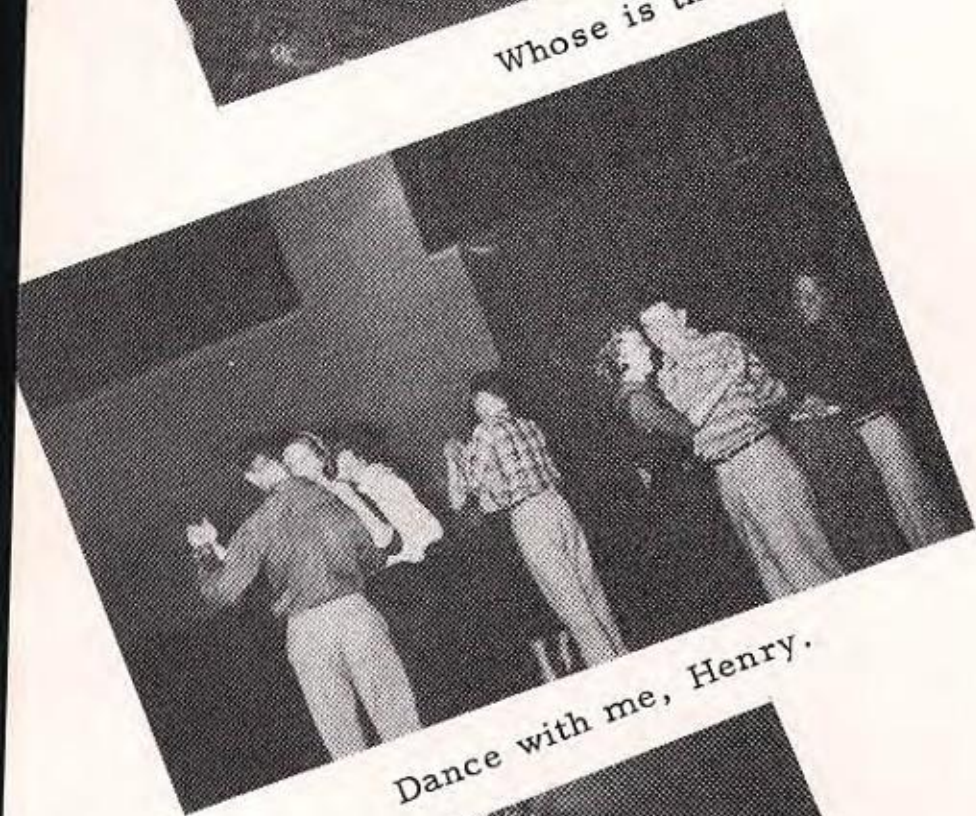

What a game!

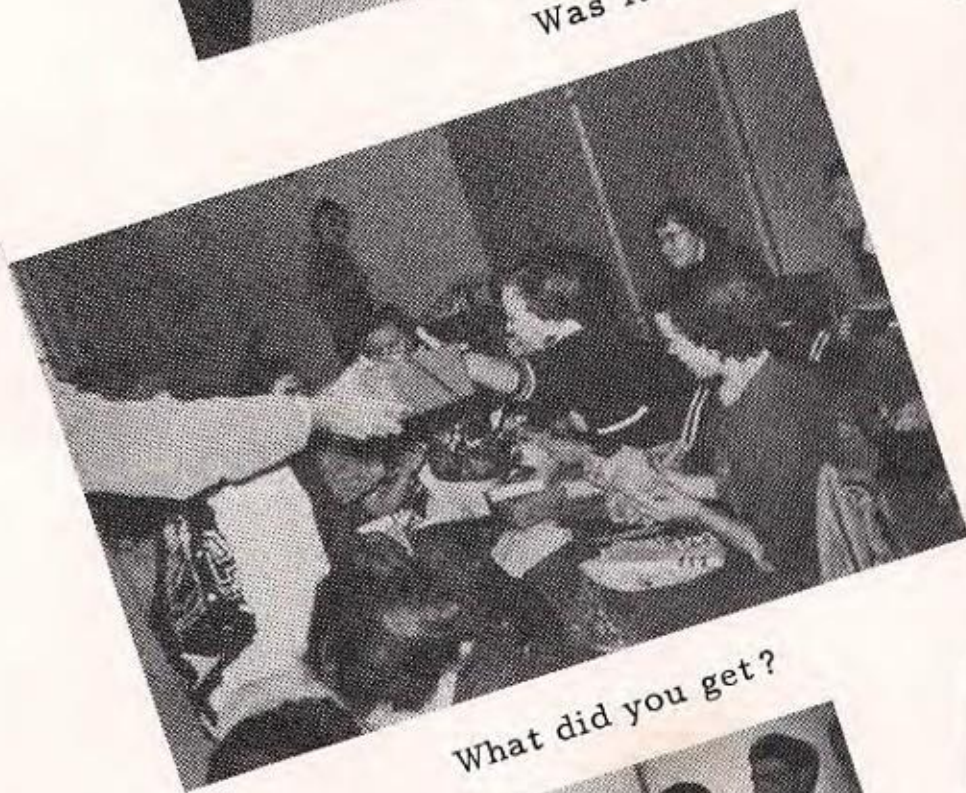

Whose is this?

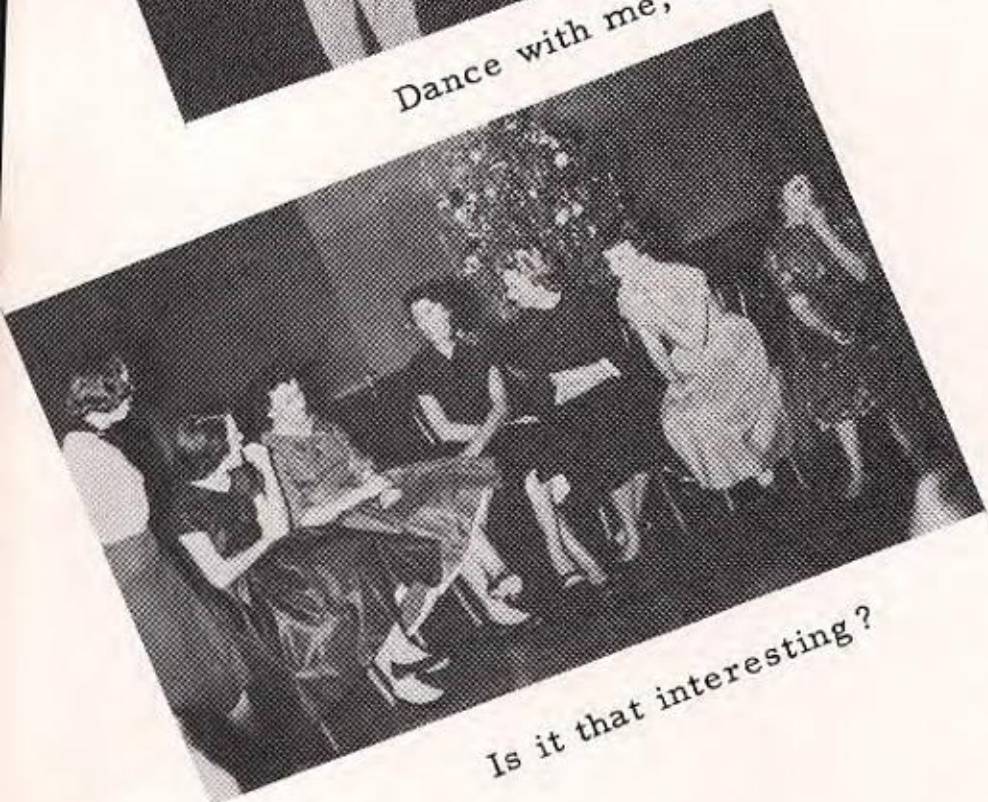

Was it funny?

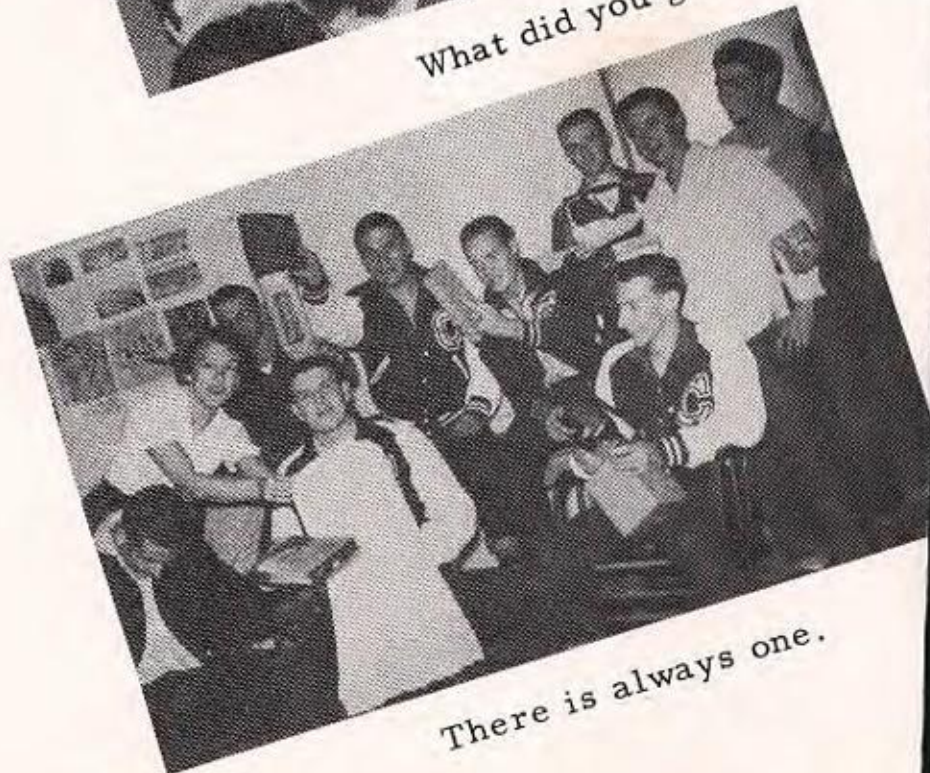

Dance with me, Henry.

What did you get?

Is it that interesting?

There is always one.

Ipana Smiles.

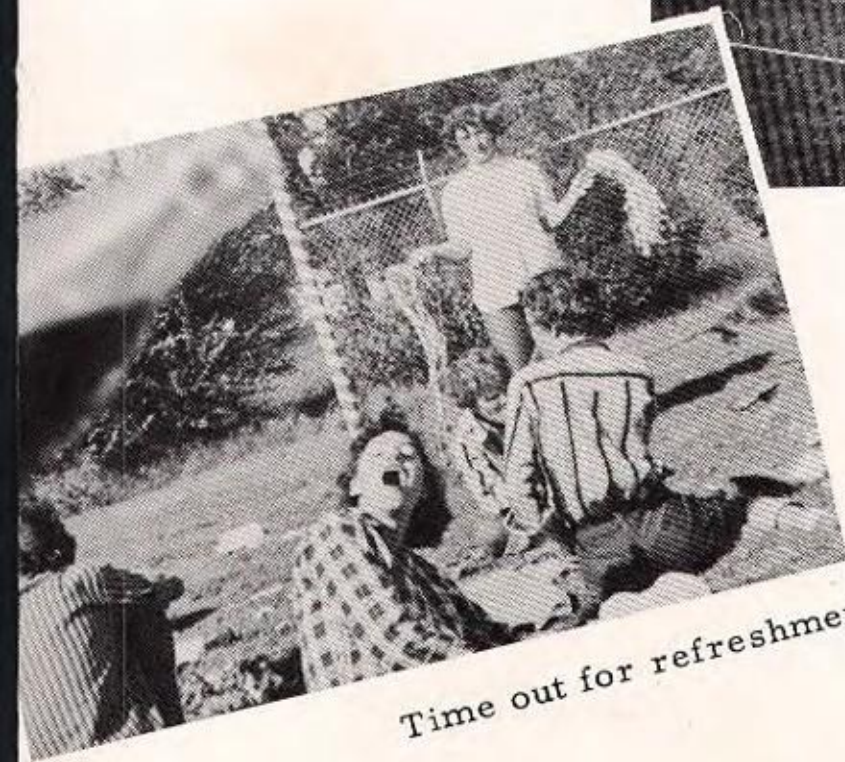

It's finally over.

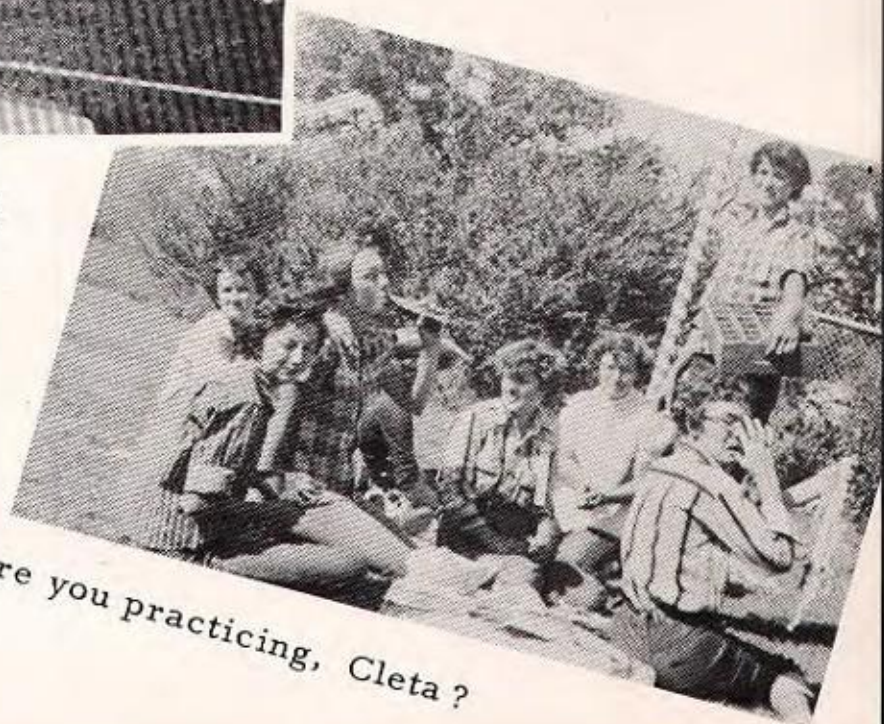

M-m-m boy!

Doing their duty!

Time out for refreshments.

Are you practicing, Cleta?

Be good little boys and drink your milk.

Please, don't tear the magazines.

Future Homemakers?

You got a date tonight?

Why so sad, Ann Zene?

What's so funny?

Hi ya, babe!

Chew each bite twenty times.

In case you don't recognize this fellow, he's a typical Canton High student, a crazy-mixed-up Eagle. For you squares who don't dig modern art, here's the explanation:

Of course you see the over-sized beak, the better to gossip with, my dears. The eye is also enlarged--and bloodshot--this bird had a hard Hallowe'en. The small, slightly football-shaped part is his body, and the drooping fan-shaped part protruding from it is one wing. You Algebra students understand, of course, that the "2" is a coefficient, meaning that there two wings. The claws have been misplaced a little; they're on the wing.

Like all Canton Eagles, this one is hungry, and he's caught a rabbit. This rabbit, you notice, is slightly deformed. One ear has been eaten off by the snake down in that hole; and if you don't see the snake, you just don't understand modern art at all.

The Journalism Class would like to thank Mr. Bill Foster for contributing his drawing to the annual.
